

Jill's Journal

Happy Fall! I hope you are enjoying the crisp mornings, colorful foliage and an occasional warm fire.

GWG has swung into Fall with a full calendar of Recent Events: Two well attended education sessions, a tour of the Governor's School for the Arts and Humanities, an Anniversary Celebration and an Each One Bring One event. We are thankful for members of the Membership Growth, Membership Engagement and Education Committees for organizing it all. And, we celebrate our more than 500 members who make these gatherings interesting and successful.

Be sure to visit us on

Upcoming Events:

- Each One Bring One on November 1st at the home of Marsha Sichveld.
- Young Professionals' gathering at Magnetic South Brewery on November 9.
- Education Session on November 15 at the Kroc Center: Improving Women's Health: Innovation to Intervention.
- New Member Holiday Brunch on Saturday, December 2nd at the home of Sue Priester.

On October 23 you received an email inviting you to participate in our GWG Survey. We ask all members to complete the survey which is due on November 10 and offers three chances to win a $100 gift certificate! Information gathered will help us create GWG's next strategic plan. Your opinion matters!

GWG's 2023-2024 Grant Season is underway. Grant applications will be accepted from November 1 to November 27, 2023 and information about applying is on the GWG website under Grants. All members are welcome to join the Grants Review Committee to learn about challenges in Greenville County and how nonprofit organizations are addressing needs. It is a great way to learn about our community, work with fellow members and make new friends. To join, email greenvillewomensgiving@gmail.com

GWG Renewal and Annual Commitment Notices were sent at the end of October. Your renewed membership helps us continue to Grow a Greater Greenville through our strong support of nonprofit organizations in Greenville County. In completing the form, please consider a voluntary donation to the GWG Endowment. The endowment is our means of ensuring that GWG continues its community-building work into the future.

Please have a wonderful Thanksgiving with family and friends.
