

Jamming with Jane

One of the things I love about Greenville is that just about the time you're thinking, "I wish winter would end?" it does. Welcome, Spring!

It was great to see everyone at the Members Only Luncheon on February 15th at the Thornblade Club. We had about 175 members in attendance. Our theme this year, entitled "Grow...Flourish...Thrive", focused on membership growth and engagement. After a great lunch, attendees discussed and offered suggestions for how GWG can attract new members and keep our existing members engaged. We will be reviewing the discussion notes and summarizing results to share with you soon.

Spring also means it's SHEro time! A SHEro is a woman who inspires you. She could be a mother, sister, best friend, colleague, a favorite teacher or any woman who has made an impact on your life. For a donation of $50 per nominee you can pay tribute to one or more women. All donations will go to the Greenville Women Giving Endowment Fund and all SHERos will be listed in the May 12 issue of The Greenville Journal. Here are the dates for some upcoming events that you will want to save on your calendar:

March 14th: GWG will host a Spotlight on Health Education session, entitled "Mental Health Emergencies...Who you gonna call?" at the Younts Center at Furman beginning at 5:30 pm. To RSVP now, email gwgrsvp@gmail.com.

April 4th: Our 2023 Ballot Showcase will be held at Senior Action on E. North St. This is your chance to meet the nonprofits who will comprise our 2023 ballot. Each nominee will have a few minutes to address the attendees, after which you will have time to talk with the nominees on a one-to-one basis. Your invitation has been emailed to you and you need to RSVP by March 20th. To RSVP now, email gwgrsvp@gmail.com.

Our 17th Annual Meeting will be held this year on May 16th at Events at Judson Mills. More details to come.

Lastly, a reminder: you need to make this year's membership contribution before March 15th in order to vote for the 2023 grant winners. You can pay online here.
