

Mary's Musings

Although most are on Summer Break, the GWG Co-Chairs have been working diligently planning GWG's sixteenth year of Giving Collectively, Granting Strategically, Growing a Greater Greenville. We can't wait to begin meeting in person this Fall.

Our first all member gathering will be the Annual Fall Kickoff, on September 21st at 5:30pm at the Greenville Hilton. Beginning at this official kickoff of our Sweet 16 Celebration and continuing throughout the year, we will celebrate the impact GWG has had - 134 grants to 86 organizations totaling over $7 million in support of nonprofits in Greenville County.

Know someone who might want to join Greenville Women Giving? The first Each One Bring One event will be held the evening of Thursday, August 26th. Watch for your invitation with all the details.

The Education committee has planned a full year of learning opportunities. All of the information will be in the Program Brochure which will arrive in the mail in August. Save the date for the first Education session on September 28 at 5:30 at the Younts Conference Center at Furman.

Are you interested in joining a committee? Education and Grants Review would love to have you join their committees. In addition, the Membership Engagement Committee is looking for Mentors for new members. If interested, let our multi-talented administrator Melanie know and she will make the connections: greenvillemomengiving@gmail.com

There is still a chance for you to own the stylish GWG T-Shirt. There is a very limited supply: 6 mediums and 6 larges. The cost is $12. Let Melanie know which size you want (first come, first serve). greenvillemomengiving@gmail.com

"When we give cheerfully and accept gratefully, everyone is blessed."
