

Mary's Musings

It is official, Fall 2022 has arrived. Although the first day of Fall was hot and humid, the days are getting shorter and cooler. It is beginning to feel like Fall.

In September, Greenville Women Giving Kicked off the 17th year of local impact with over 200 people gathering at Verdae Embassy Suites to hear the impact of 5 grants awarded over the last few years. The speakers were great and so informative about the impact GWG has in the community. I am comfortable to say it was a great evening of education and friendship. Lastly, a special thanks to the young people from the Phillis Wheatley Community Center for their outstanding musical performance and to the Greenville Zoo for bringing an owl and a chinchilla to join our reception.

Thank you Greenville Journal for covering the Kick off (link).

Several events are already on the calendar for GWG members and Guests. Mark your calendars.

For early registration to any of the events please email gwgrsvp@gmail.com. Please indicate which event(s) you would like to attend in your email.

A great way to meet other GWG members and learn more about the non-profits in the Greenville community is to join the Grants Review Committee. If interested contact Melanie at greenillewomengiving@gmail.com.

I am excited to begin GWG's 17th year of Giving Collectively, Granting Strategically and Growing a Greater Greenville.
